The banks, outside of the routine business, are quiet and without important change. There is some inquiry for money, mainly for cotton purposes, with sufficiency on hand to meet such paper as is acceptable, and "acceptable" is a very strictly-defined word just now. Exchange has become plentiful from more liberal sales of cotton; it quotes as follows: New York buying ½ discount, selling ¼ premium; New England buying at ½ discount, sight ¼ discount, selling at ¼ premium; New Orleans buying ¼ discount, selling at par. The St. Louis papers complain of a very dull money market there; the Globe-Democrat said on Tuesday: "Business in volume was not satisfactory to the brokers, there being a disinclination on the part of speculators to take hold or make engagements for the future." In our market there was a sale of $4000 and another of $5000 Memphis gas stock at par; also $700 of Union and Planters bank stock at 104. FINANCIAL. stock at par; also $700 of Union and Planters bank stock at 104.
